

THE TAKEOVER PANEL

NEW DIRECTOR GENERAL FOR THE TAKEOVER PANEL

Crispin Wright, a Managing Director within Rothschild's Global Financial Advisory business, is to be the next Director General of the Takeover Panel.

Crispin will take up his appointment on 1 July 2015. He will be on a two year secondment from Rothschild.

Note to Editors:

Crispin Wright, 54, is currently a Managing Director within Rothschild's Global Financial Advisory business. He joined Morgan Grenfell in 1982 and was promoted to Director in 1994. He joined Rothschild in 1998. With 33 years as an investment banker at Morgan Grenfell/Deutsche Bank and Rothschild, he is one of Rothschild's most experienced UK financial advisory practitioners. He has a broad range of experience acting for clients across a wide range of different industries on listed company buy and sell side transactions, including hostile bids and bid defences, mergers, private company purchases and disposals, rights and other equity issues, corporate reorganisations and joint ventures.

16 April 2015